WHILE Will Mattingly was loading a 22 caliber pistol the other day the weapon discharged, the ball going through one of the fingers of his left hand.

ATTEND the sale of the Givens farm on the Danville pike to-morrow, Saturday. The property is very desirable and should bring a handsome amount.

THE L. & N. will run an excursion from Richmond to Louisville on Sunday, Sept. 20. It will pass Stanford at 6:30 A. M., and the fare for the round-trip will be $1.75.

PERCY STEWART and Allen Hill, colored, are under arrest charged with stealing chickens from the produce firm of Land & Buchanan. Their trial is set for Saturday.

VEHICLES AT COST.—J. L. McKee Kiffe of Hustonville, is offering his sample stock of vehicles of all kinds at absolute cost. Now is your chance to get a bargain.

REPRESENTATIVE W. H. SHANKS has been appointed campaign chairman for Lincoln county. He is a hard-working democrat and good reports may be expected this year.

THE little daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Nevius, of Lancaster, lived only 24 hours. Mr. J. C. McCarty and Mrs. Mattie Nevius attended the burial yesterday afternoon.

AT the R. E. Goddard sale to-morrow, Saturday, a number of young horses and mares will be disposed of. Also a lot of business horses, 150 hogs and some farming implements.

GOV. LUKE P. BLACKBURN often said that he did not believe any one who used Crab Orchard water regularly, would ever have typhoid fever. White's Diamond Brand at all drug stores.

OUR item about the number of teachers of the deaf Lincoln county has sent out is being copied by most all of our exchanges but only a very few of them give this paper credit for the article.

IN the quarterly court Marshal B. D. Carter was given a judgment against W. H. Leslie, a drummer, who drove one of Mr. Carter's lively horses to death. Mr. B. F. Goode secured a verdict of $111 against Tol Timberlake on a mule deal.

JIM LEE, colored, was placed in jail Wednesday night, charged with shooting John Payne, of Crab Orchard. The wound is a painful but not necessarily a dangerous one. Lee says Payne was at his home in the Deep Well Woods and had threatened to shoot him.

FINE singing, bright comedy, clever dancing and all that is new in minstrelsy will be seen next Saturday, night, Sept. 12, at "J. A. Coburn's Greater Minstrels" at Walton's Opera House. Everything new. New music, new songs, new people, new costumes, and a laugh in every minute of an evening's enjoyment and amusement. There is not a dull moment, not a single uninteresting feature in the attraction provided this year by Manager Coburn, and his guarantee of "your money's worth or your money back," we all know means a first class performance and satisfaction to every patron.

NEALS CREEK.—Rev. Barker filled his appointment here Sunday, and delivered an interesting sermon. Among those who are on the sick list are Mr. S. T. Roberts and Mrs. Kittie Mundy. Miss Jennie Rogers, of Preachersville, was visiting her cousin, Miss Biddie Green. Mr. John Price and wife, of Danville, were visiting at the home of J. T. Mundy. Miss Dessie Harrington visited Miss Grace Dishon Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. B. P. Martin was visiting Mrs. Kirkpatrick. Mr. S. T. Roberts and wife visited Mrs. Carter at Rowland. Mrs. Ben Cooley has returned from a visit at Junction City. Mrs. Florence Terry was called to her home at Highland on account of the illness of her mother. Mr. John Raines was visiting Mr. E. B. Austin at Highland.

Do not be imposed upon. There are imitations and adulterated water and salts on the market. White's Diamond Brand is the genuine.

THE Crab Orchard Graded School taxes are due. If not paid by Oct. 1 a penalty of 5 per cent. will be added. M. M. Perkins, treasurer and collector.

TO TEXAS.—Excursion from Danville Sept. 15th to Southern Texas. For rates and other information see W. L. McCarty, Stanford, or Dunn & Adams, Danville.

GIVE us a chance to do your plumbing, tinning and repairing. We are still at Aldridge's old stand and will give prompt attention to all orders. W. K. Warner.

MR. BEN W. DURHAM, the Junction City druggist, who shot and killed John Wright last Saturday afternoon, was acquitted at his examining trial at Danville Wednesday.

SOME scamps fired a number of shots around the depot about 12 o'clock Wednesday night. We hope Marshal Carter will spare neither time nor energy in arresting the guilty parties.

You had better get reserved seats to Coburn's Barlow Minstrels to-day. The choice seats go first and the chances are the entire reserved section of Walton's Opera House will be sold.

MR. A. T. NUNNELLEY, who had a finger cut off while traveling in Texas, got pretty well repaid for his loss. He received $300 and his hospital expenses from the railroad company and $400 from an accident company in which he was insured. Mr. Nunnelley will be home to-morrow.

CALL on E. T. Pence when you want the best there is on the market. He is headquarters for Old Hickory wagons, Hoosier Drills of all kinds and has, just received a full line of field seeds, timothy clover, etc. Globe & Swifts fertilizers always on hand and if you want a pleasure vehicle of any kind he has them.

The latest popular and standard selections played daily by J. A. Coburn's Greater Minstrels band at the noon concerts, is a treat well worth waiting for, and Mr. Coburn's cornet solos add materially to the merits of their music. The performance this year is the best he has ever given and assures all an evening enjoyable and interesting, with the latest and best in minstrelsy. Don't forget the date, Saturday, Sept. 12, at Walton's Opera House.

MCBEE.—At noon yesterday, Mr. W. G. McBee, who has been ill with typhoid fever for some 10 days, breathed his last. His wife and seven children were in the house when the end peacefully came. Deceased was an excellent citizen and his death is greatly regretted. His family is a large one and he was greatly needed. Mr. McBee moved to Stanford from the Turnersville section several years ago and has made many friends here. Arrangements for burial had not been made when we went to press.

PLEASANT OCCASION.—Miss Sara Baughman very delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Joseph Harkins and Miss Marie Harkins, of Prestonburg. Some 50 or 60 ladies were present and they report an exceedingly enjoyable time. The handsome home was darkened but was made as bright as day by myriads of candles and gas jets. The whole lower floor was decorated, with bride's roses, la France roses, smilax, nasturtiums and asparagus every where. Mesdames J. H. and J. W. Baughman entertained and Miss Elizabeth Baughman served frappe in the sitting room, which was especially pretty with nasturtiums and smilax tastily arranged. Elegant refreshments were served. Miss Baughman was warmly congratulated and heartily thanked for giving her friends such an enjoyable afternoon. Mrs. Harkins and Miss Harkins left yesterday for their home, much to the regret of the many friends they have made here.

ON Thursday night, at the pretty home of Clyde Curtis on Crab Orchard pike, he entertained 35 or 40 of his friends. The spacious lawn was beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns, lending a charm to their beautiful country home. During the evening delightful refreshments were served and music was furnished by Mr. Davis and Mrs. Byrd Curtis. Those honoring the occasion with their presence were, R. C. Collier, Miss Fannie Collier, of New York, Porter Dishon, Miss Mary Cornely, of Lancaster, Will Chancellor, Miss Lucy Hall, Miss Gracie Dishon, Guy Brady, Sam Holtzclaw, Miss Lizzie Brent, Edd White, Miss Beula White, Virgil Hester, Miss Mary B. Spoonamore, Oscar Holtzclaw, Miss Fannie Nolan, Mr. Weaver, Miss Stella McClary, Mr. Perkins, Miss Phillips, Sam Spoonamore, Miss Bessie Holtzclaw, John Spoonamore, Miss Lizzie Carpenter, Woods Carpenter, Miss Garner, Mr. White, Miss Carminly, Mr. Rigby, Miss Mary Carpenter, Fien Davis, Miss Raines, Thurman Tudor, Miss Russell, Luther Tudor, Miss Annie Carpenter. A FRIEND.

MIDDLEBURG.

Jesse Fogle had a fine young mule killed by lightning last week.

Drs. M. O. Sallee and William Sweeney killed a large red fox while out squirrel hunting Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Davis is quite sick at her home on the Liberty pike. But little hope is entertained for recovery.

The Baptist Sunday school will have an outing about the first of October, and the children are anticipating a good time.

Q. R. Jones was awarded first money on corn at the Liberty fair. He has sent 12 ears of the same corn to the State fair.

The meeting at the Christian church closed Saturday night and Rev. Joseph Montgomery went to Junction City to begin a meeting. Rev. Joel Jones, of Cynthiana, was here on a visit to his aunt, Mrs. Laura Lee, and assisted Rev. Montgomery in the meeting part of the time. The congregation was quite favorably impressed with him and will likely call him to the pastorate of the church.

Mrs. Walter Gooch, of Indianapolis, is with her mother, Mrs. Martha Sharp, at Yosemite. Rev. J. L. Owens was here Tuesday to see Rev. W. G. Tilford. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson attended the Somerset fair. E. J. Godby was down from Hustonville Monday and spent the night with his daughter, Mrs. C. C. Jones. Lincoln Wells went to Lexington last week. Frank Lee is able to be out after a sick spell of some 10 days duration.

MATRIMONIAL.

Miss Rinda Horton, of Sandy Hook, Ky., rode 1,000 miles to meet and marry the Rev. Thomas Houghton, of Warner, Okla. The couple had carried on a courtship of two years by mail. The bride had never seen her husband until a few hours before the marriage.

Harry Bright, of Woodward, Okla., and Miss Rose Mary Dickpeddie, of Emmetsburg, Ia., were married March 23rd, last, but the matter has just been made public. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bright, of Danville, and his bride is a former resident of Boyle.

Mr. Will Bybee, a dry goods merchant of Somerset, and Mrs. Linda Tucker, the handsome daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. S. Grinstead, formerly of this place, but now of Versailles, were married in Cincinnati Tuesday. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Kathleen Beazley and Mrs. Jesse Walter of this place. Mrs. Tucker is well-known here, having visited her sisters at this place and their many friends wish for them all the happiness this world can bring to a happy couple.

Good Farm For Sale

I desire to sell privately my 200-acre farm 3 1/2 miles southeast of Hustonville. It is all in grass except 10 acres and is well improved. Will sell for one-third cash and balance on payments. For further particulars write or call on C. T. Bohon, Lebanon, Ky.

For Sale Privately!

Splendid Blue Grass Farm for Sale!

As executor of Mrs. L. J. Lloyd, I will offer for sale at public outcry on the premises, at about 10 A. M. Tuesday Sept. 12, 188, the magnificent blue grass farm of about 295 acres of which she died possessed. It is situated in Lincoln county, Ky., on a turnpike about 3 1/2 miles from McKimney and about the same distance from Hustonville. The improvements consist principally of a two-story, frame dwelling, large barn, double crib, buggy house, tenant house, all necessary outbuildings, elstern, stock scales, etc. All in grass but about 75 acres. It is near good schools, churches and a railroad station on the Queen & Crescent railway. The land is to be surveyed. Possession for seeding purposes will be given as soon as the terms of sale are complied with and of the whole tract Jan. 1st, 1909. At least one-third of the purchase price must be paid in cash and terms as to balance will be arranged to suit purchaser. This is one of the best farms in Lincoln county. For further particulars address J. B. PAXTON, Executor, Stanford, Ky.

At Public Sale

A VERY DESIRABLE BLUE GRASS FARM

One Mile from Stanford, Ky.

As executors of the will of S. W. Givens, Sr., deceased, and as agents for his devisees, we will, on SATURDAY, SEPT. 12, 1908, at 2 o'clock P. M. sell, on the premises, at public auction to the highest bidder the farm on which Mrs. Mary C. Givens resided at her death. The farm contains 18 1/2 acres situated on the East side of the Danville turnpike, about one mile from Stanford and within a half mile of the Stanford Graded School. The improvements consist of a residence containing 8 rooms, besides halls, also commodious barns and other outbuildings. About one-half of the farm is in grass and all under good fence. The soil is well adapted for tobacco, hemp and the other crops usual to this section. Possession for seeding purposes will be given as soon as the condition of the growing crops will permit and full possession Jan. 1, 1909.

TERMS.—One-third cash, remainder in two equal installments in one and two years, with interest from day of sale, with option to the purchaser to pay all cash.

A good general warranty deed will be made on receipt of cash payment and notes of purchaser.

George O. Givens, S. W. Givens, B. W. Givens, Executors and Agents.

All persons having a claim against the estate of Mrs. Mary C. Givens are requested to present same to me. B. W. Givens, agent, Hubble, Ky.
